

A FROZEN ROMANCE ANTHOLOGY THAT'LL KEEP YOU WARM

Want to let it go? Find ice, magic, and romance in Frozen, 11 all-new short stories to inspire holiday romance.

This season, keep warm with a collection of winter themed love stories from Satin Romance, a Mélange Books imprint. Frozen, A Winter Anthology showcases eleven tales of romantic magic. Ranging from contemporary and young adult to fantasy and paranormal, this book will keep you turning the pages from one unique happy ending to the next.

Eleven authors each contributed a story true to their niche. Meet winter spirit Jack Frost who falls in love with a mortal, go on a journey with Jess and her commitment-phobe boyfriend to Sweden, and see what time traveller Drew is getting up to around Christmas. Freelance photographer Lizbeth meets fate when she gets snowed in in her car, Tiffany is reluctant to join her progressive grandmother at Lake Superior, the sheik's daughter Nila's has a difficult decision to make, Cara discovers miracles, and the magical couple Alaric and Cassandra are thrown into turmoil by thriving in different seasons. Read what happens when a single mother meets an old friend, and the consequences of falling off a ladder for ice sculptor Sam.

Mélange Books has over 420 titles and is home to 125 authors. The company was established in 2011, and has since been living up to its motto to provide stories for every reader's taste in literature. It is a fast-growing publisher with an international portfolio of authors. Publisher, Nancy Schumacher, says, "I had been an editor with another house, and when that house closed its doors, I opened my own doors, believing I knew enough about the industry to do so. I then offered contracts to the authors from the house that was closing, and many of them, luckily for me, came along for this wonderful ride."

The authors of the winter romance anthology are a diverse cast of talented writers. Elena Kane is a country girl who says, "The coolest people ever inspired me to take on the huge world of romance and I've enjoyed every moment of it." From North Carolina there is Bess Kingsley who would go to The Grandhotel Pupp in Karlovy Vary, CZ for her perfect winter holiday. "Ever since I saw the movie Last Holiday with Queen Latifah (I love her!), I've wanted to visit," says Bess. Rhonda Brutt's favorite part of winter is defying the below zero temperatures in Minnesota from the safety of her hot tub, while Tara Fox Hall divides her free time unequally between writing, chain sawing firewood, caring for stray animals, and target practice. April Marcom, teacher and mother who enjoys the peaceful life of the countryside, nominates Home Alone as her all-time favorite winter movie. "Someday I hope to go with my family to New York during the holidays to see the Rockefeller Center Christmas tree shown in Home Alone 2: Lost in New York." South African Charmaine Pauls likes to use her travel experience as settings for her stories, taking her characters around the globe. Valerie Clarizio's favorite winter book is 'While You Were Sleeping', while Christina Kirby votes for the winter movies 'Miracle on 34th Street' and 'The Holiday'. Says Valerie, "I have a thing for amnesia stories – you'll be sure to find out when you read my story." When Nancy Pennick is asked what inspired her story, she says, "Kate and Drew are the main characters from my young adult series, Waiting for Dusk. Readers never knew how Drew proposed or how he finally got Kate to say 'yes'. This is their story." Join these eleven diverse authors for a winter journey of magic and romance.
